An Advertisement.

THE end of this short Explication is to render the Principles of Christian Religion, comprized in the Church Catechism, plain and easie to the meanest capacities. And the method thereof is this, 1. The Catechism is printed in a different letter, on the left hand page, that it may be first learned by it self. 2. The severall Questions of the Catechism, are put under a proper Title, containing the Subject of each Question, and the Answers to them are broken to pieces by a few brief and plain Explicatory Questions; so that ignorant Learners may easily understand the full meaning of them. And those who cannot read, or cannot get long Answers by heart (which want Instruction the most) need not be discouraged by this method, because they are not required hereby to Answer any more than Yes, or No, which will be no burthen to their memory, and yet will exercise their Judgment, and as well teach them to understand the sense of their Catechism, as try whether they do so or no. Yet those of better capacity may exercise their memory also, and by frequent reading the Explicatory Questions, will be able to repeat them after the Catechist, and turn them into an Affirmative or Negative Proposition, thus,

Qu. Ought your name, &c. Answ. Yes, my name, &c. ought, &c.

Qu. Are not Infants, &c. Answ. No, Infants are not, &c.

Now this may be of use, as well to Parents in private, as to Ministers in Publick; who may first ask the Learners so many Questions of the Church Catechism, as they think fit for one time; and then beginning again, may first tell them the Title or Subject of each Question, and then examine them by the Explicatory Questions belonging thereunto. And if the Minister please to enlarge a little in a plain discourse upon every Explicatory Question, and also to shew unto what part of the Answer in the Church Catechism it doth refer, the Learner will better understand it, which will make the necessary duty of Catechising still more profitable, and will drop knowledg by degrees into those narrow mouthed Vessels, for whose sake this method was contrived. And the success it hath had, on many very young Children, and very ignorant Country people, hath encouraged the Publication thereof, in hopes it may be very serviceable, not only for private Families, but also for Country Congregations, as well to invite the Learners to come in greater numbers by its easiness, as to instruct them by its plainness. And the whole is no other than the Church Catechism enjoined by Law, briefly Explained, and no more imposed to be gotten by heart, than that which the Church requires, the rest being only contrived to make that understood and try if it be so, It is hoped the Right Reverend Governours of the Church, ( to whose censure the whole is humbly submitted ) will not dislike the publication thereof, in order to the fitting the more ignorant sort, for those great Duties of Confirmation and the Lords Supper. " I need not here add any thing concerning the Divine " Institution and Antiquity of Catechising ; the Excellency of " our Church Catechism, both for its agreeableness to Primitive forms, and its exact Method, nor shall I now enlarge " upon the necessity and use of this Profitable and Pious Duty, " Having in a peculiar Discourse upon Catechising treated of " these particulars, and exhorted, 1. Ministers to promote " not only the learning the Catechism by rote, but the understanding thereof. 2. Parents and Masters both to instruct " their Children and Servants in Private, and to bring them " to Church to be publicly Catechised. 3. And excited the " Younger and Ignorant people to come willingly. To which Discourse I refer the Reader, Companion to the Altar, page 451, 452, &c.

T H E INTRODUCTION.

- §. Almighty God having Created our first Parents after his own Image, did condescend to enter into a Covenant with them, wherein he promised life to them and their Posterity, upon condition of perfect and perpetual obedience, and threatned their disobedience with death.
- §. Our first Parents through the temptation of Satan, wilfully transgressed the Commandment of God in eating the forbidden fruit, and thereby brought themselves, and all their posterity, into an estate of sin and misery.
- §. God hath not left mankind to perish in the estate of Sin and Misery, into which they fell by the breach of the first Covenant; But hath been pleased of his meer love and mercy to make a second Covenant of Grace, wherein he freely offereth pardon, and salvation, by Jesus Christ, to all those who shall truly repent, and believe in him.
- §. And seeing this Covenant is solemnly to be enter'd into, in our infancy by Baptism, (which is the first benefit and favour we are capable of after we are born) It seemed good to the excellent compilers of this Catechism, to begin it where we begin our Christianity; and by the mention of our name received in Baptism, to take occasion to mind us of our Obligations, and Priviledges thereby.

Preface. Of the Motives to Obedience.

- |   |     |
|---|-----|
| §. Should not [1.] Gods Sovereignty over us [2.] His relation to us, [3.] and his delivering, (as Israel of old from Egyptian bondage, so) us from our spiritual thralldom, ingage us to keep all his Commandments. | Yes |
|---|-----|

- I. Thou shalt have none other Gods but me.
- II. Thou shalt not make to thy self any graven Image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in Heaben above, or in the Earth beneath, or in the water under the Earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them, nor worship them. For I the Lord thy God am a Jealous God, and visit the sins of the Fathers upon the Children, unto the third and fourth Generation of them that hate me, and shew mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my Commandments.
- III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain: For the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his Name in vain.
- IV. Remember that thou keep Holy the Sabbath day. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to do; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt do no manner of work, thou and thy Son, and thy Daughter, thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, thy Cattel, and the stranger that is within thy Gates. For in six days the Lord made Heaben and Earth, the Sea and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.
- V. Honour thy Father and thy Mother, that thy days may be long in the Land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.
- VI. Thou shalt do no murder.
- VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
- VIII. Thou shalt not steal.
- IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.
- X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbours house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbours wife, nor his servant, nor his maid, nor his Ox, nor his Ass, nor any thing that is his.

Qu. 9. What dost thou chiefly learn by these Commandments?

Ans. I learn two things: my duty towards God, and my duty towards my Neighbour.

Qu. 10. What is thy duty towards God?

Ans. My duty towards God is,

I, II. To believe in him, to fear him, and to love him, with all my heart, with all my mind, with all my soul, and with all my strength: to worship him, to give him thanks, to put my whole trust in him, to call upon him.

III. To honour his holy Name and his Word;

IV. And to serve him truly all the days of my life.

Qu. 11. What is thy duty towards thy Neighbour?

Ans. My duty towards my Neighbour is,

§. To love him as my self, and to do to all men, as I would they should do to me.

V. To love, honour, and succour my Father and Mother.

To honour and obey the King, and all that are put in authority under him. To submit my self to all my Governours, Teachers, Spiritual Pastors and Masters. To order my self lowly and reverently to all my betters.

VI. To hurt no body by word or deed.

VII. To be true and just in all my dealings.

VIII. To bear no malice nor hatred in my heart.

IX. To keep my hands from picking and stealing.

X. And my tongue from evil speaking, lying and flandering.

XI. To keep my body in temperance, soberness, and chastity.

XII. Not to covet and desire other mens goods, but to learn and labour truly to get mine own living, and to do my duty in that state of life, unto which it shall please God to call me.

Of our Duty to God contained in the four first Commandments.

§. Is it not the sum of our duty to God to love Him, with all our heart; with all our mind; with all our soul, and with all our strength?

- *. Will the Lord suffer them to escape his righteous judgment, who wilfully break this Commandment? No

Com. IV. Of the solemn time of our Worship.

- §. Doth not the fourth Commandment enjoin us, to keep Holy the Sabbath day; by spending it,
1. In worshiping God, both in public and private? Yes
  2. Or in the works of necessity and mercy? Yes
- †. Do not they sin against this Commandment,
1. Who spend the Sabbath Day in idleness? Yes
  2. Or about their worldly business, or recreations? Yes
- §. May Masters command or permit these things to those who are under their charge? No
- *. Should not [1.] Gods allowing us six days for our own employment [2.] and his challenging a special propriety in the seventh: [3.] His own Example; [4.] and his blessing and sanctifying the Sabbath Day; move us to obey his Commandment? Yes
- §. Is it sufficient to worship God on the Sabbath Day only? No
- §. Ought we to set apart some time for it every day? Yes
- §. And must we religiously observe the Fasts and Festivals of the Church? Yes

Of our duty to man, contained in the six last Commandments.

- §. Is it not the sum of our duty to our neighbour, to love him as our selves ? Yes
 §. Do we thus love our neighbour, unless we do to others what we would have them do to us ? No

Catechist :

My good child, know this, that thou art not able to do these things of thy self, nor to walk in the Commandments of God, and to serve him, without his special grace, which thou must learn at all times to call for by diligent prayer.

Question 12.

Let me hear therefore, if thou canst say the Lords Prayer.

Answer.

Our Father which art in Heaven.

I. Hallowed be thy name,

II. Thy Kingdom come,

III. Thy will be done in earth as it is in Heaven.

IV. Give us this day our daily bread.

V. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive them that trespass against us,

VI. And lead us not into temptation.

VII. But deliver us from evil.

§. For thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory. For ever, and ever. Amen.

Question 13.

What desirest thou of God in this prayer?

Answer.

I desire my Lord God our heavenly Father, who is the giver of all goodness, to send his grace unto me, and to all people,

I. That we may worship him,

II. Serve him,

III. And obey him as we ought to do :

IV. And I pray unto God, that he will send us all things that be needful both for our souls and bodies,

V. And that he will be merciful unto us and forgive us our sins,

VI, VII. And that it will please him to save and defend us, in all dangers, ghostly and bodily, and that he will keep us from all sin and wickedness, and from our ghostly enemy, and from everlasting death.

And this I trust he will do of his mercy and goodness, through our Lord Jesus Christ, and therefore I say Amen. So be it.
